E Safety

Internet safety is such an important issue for pupils and parents. This is a topic we regularly cover in school, but should also be a topic of conversation at home. Do parents know what apps and games their children play? Are the settings on devices appropriate for their children? These questions can be answered via a wonderful website called Internet matters. This site contains information for pupils and parents on a number of important areas.

COVID CASE IN THE SCHOOL COMMUNITY

Parents were notified yesterday that there has been a positive COVID case within school. The case has not directly affected any pupils or class bubbles and has been dealt with in accordance with the guidance from Public Health England.

If there is a positive case within school, the head teacher contacts the DfE help line to look at the next steps to deal with the situation. During this call, a decision is made about staff or pupils who have to isolate and the length of time this isolation needs to take place for.

Although there has been minimal disruption to school with this particular positive case, it does remind us all that COVID is still active within our community and we must all continue to take the steps of Hands, Face and Space to ensure that we can reduce the risk of infections spreading. This is particular important for our pupils in school who mix with a number of classmates during the day.

As a school we are constantly reviewing our COVID procedures in line with national guidance. This still recommends that school enforce social distancing and minimise mixing as much as possible.

When on the school grounds we would like our parents and visitors to stick to the social distancing guidance, to continue to wear a face mask and to avoid mixing as much as possible.

Parents Evenings and Reports

As mentioned in last week's newsletter, we are planning to release a pupil report next term and provide parents with the opportunity to have a meeting with their child's class teacher.

Pupil reports will be given to parents on Friday the 9th of July, with the week commencing the 12th of July set aside for parent teacher meetings.

Last day of the half term

Friday the 28th of May will be the last day of this half term. This is NOT a non uniform day. Pupil will be expected to attend in normal school uniform. Pupils will return to school on the Monday the 7th of June and will break up for summer at their class exit time on Tuesday the 20th of July.
